SOLITUDE

Laugh, and the world laughs with you;
Weep, and you weep alone,
For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth,
But has trouble enough of its own.
Sing, and the hills will answer;
Sigh, it is lost on the air,
The echoes bound to a joyful sound,
But shrink from voicing care.

"If"

If you can keep your head when all about you
  Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust when all men doubt you,
  But make allowance for all their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
  Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
  And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master,
  If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet triumph and disaster
  And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
  Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
  And stoop and build'em up with worn out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
  And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
  And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
  To serve your turn long after you are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
  Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
  Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
  If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
  With sixty seconds' with a distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
  And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

P.H.H.S. Students Grasp For New Goals . . .

After a long and delightful summer vacation, P.H. students had to get back into the swing of things.

The cheerleaders and football players were busy practicing for the oncoming season while the teachers were preparing for another school year. Many of the students were busy exchanging news with those they had not seen since June and others were anxiously anticipating meeting the new teachers.

Football and Cross Country marked the beginning of our school sports season.

This year's cross country team was led by a new coach, Mr. Ailsworth. It was a very successful effort on both the team's and the new coach's part.

Band and Chorus

With the beginning of school, band and chorus members started their rehearsals and practices.

The band and chorus presented several special programs for the school and community throughout the year.

Ashland Parade

The annual Ashland Rescue Squad Parade was held October 7, 1972. The Patrick Henry Marching Band and Majorettes won second place in performance and appearance.

Pep Rallies

Each Friday during football season, a pep rally was held in the gym to boost the spirit and morale of the team and the student body.

There was class competition to see who could arouse the most enthusiasm. The juniors demonstrated the most school spirit.

"Bye, Bye Birdie"

In October 1972, students from Gandy Elementary, Liberty Junior High and Patrick Henry presented the musical "Bye, Bye Birdie" under the direction of Mr. Harold Wright. The musical director was Mr. Frank Reynolds. The choreographers were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wren. The leading role of Conrad Birdie was portrayed by Rusty Lowry.

Honor Clubs Install New Members

The National Honor Society and Beta Club decided to do something unique. This year the two clubs had a joint tapping service on October 19th. The students were very attentive and the atmosphere was solemn. The program was well planned and very interesting. Approximately eleven were tapped into each club. A reception for both clubs and the parents of the students followed the tapping service.

Key Club Ignites School Spirit

In a show of spirit, the Key Clubbers ran a game ball 22 miles to Lee Davis before the football game. Each Key Clubber participating ran one or two miles. The runners left from P.H. at 5:10 P.M. and reached Lee Davis at 7:25 P.M.

The Key Club sweetheart Lynn Engleby worked long hours helping to prepare for the Homecoming half-time festivities.

Homecoming '72

Our 1972 Homecoming events took place on November 10th and 11th. The game was played on Friday the 10th, with Douglas Freeman the victor. For the first time, our Homecoming dance was held on the following evening.

Debbie Ballenger was selected as our Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of Melissa Green as Sophomore Princess, Donna Banton and Renee Bailes as Junior Princesses, and Susan Bumpass as Senior Princess. Janet Armstrong was chosen as Maid of Honor.

Patriot Man On Campus

During the Fall, the Cheerleaders sponsored the Patriot Man On Campus Contest. The nominees were chosen by the Cheerleaders. The student body voted for the guy of their choice by dropping money in the proper can. The winner was Jerry Johnson (a star basketball player) the 1972-73 Patriot Man On Campus.

Bell, Book And Candle

"Life"

For the first time, under the direction of Mrs. Kerisha Peaks, the Chorus appeared on television performing "Life". The show appeared on Christmas eve as a special. The same show was performed live in Azalea mall and here at school.

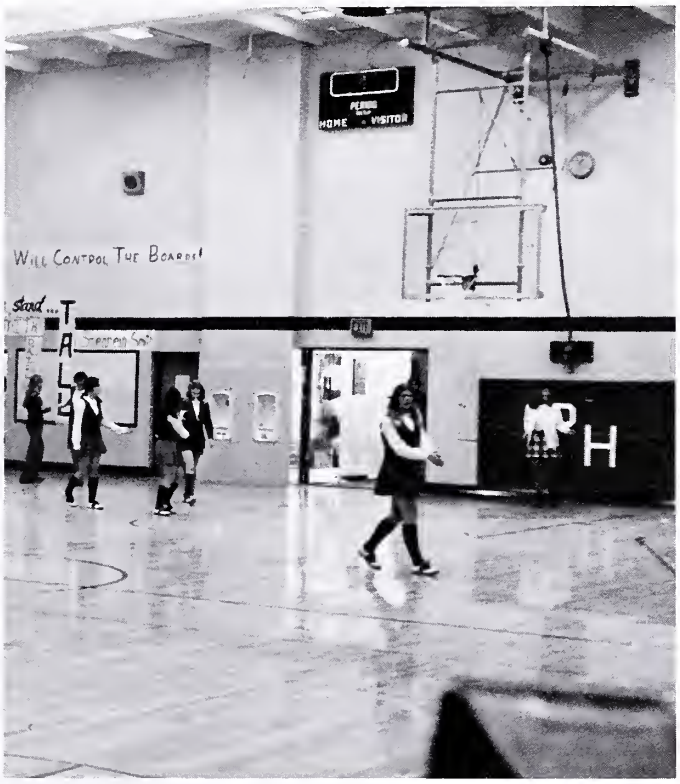
Snow . . .

In January the faculty and the students at P.H. got an unplanned vacation due to snow. The students were disappointed, however, because the vacation was so short—just two days.

Spirit, Rallies, Winners . . .



Before each basketball game, the cheerleaders led the student body in pep rallies to get the spirit up. These rallies boosted the mighty patriots on to many victories.

Stunt Nite

Stunt Nite, sponsored by the S.C.A., was held in March. There were stunts performed by faculty members, clubs, and each class. The juniors won with a skit entitled "The Twelve Years of School."

Track Season . . .

The 1973 track team was young and inexperienced in the running events but excelled in the field events. Coach Ailsworth voiced confidence for a more successful season in 1974.

Miss Patrick Henry High Contest

There were twenty-four P.H. girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes vying for the honor of Miss P.H.

The basis for the final selection was made on the girls' poise, natural beauty and participation in school activities.

Miss Patrick Henry

Miss Lynn Engelby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Engelby, was chosen the 1973 Miss Patrick Henry.

Lynn, a senior, has been a very active student academically and socially throughout her school years.

Mr. Patrick Henry . . .

One of the highlights of the year was the Mr. Patrick Henry Contest. The fellows were judged on their poise, their beauty, and their personality. The finalists had to answer questions related to dating. The winner was Webb Buchanan, a sophomore, representing the Beta Club. Webb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Buchanan.

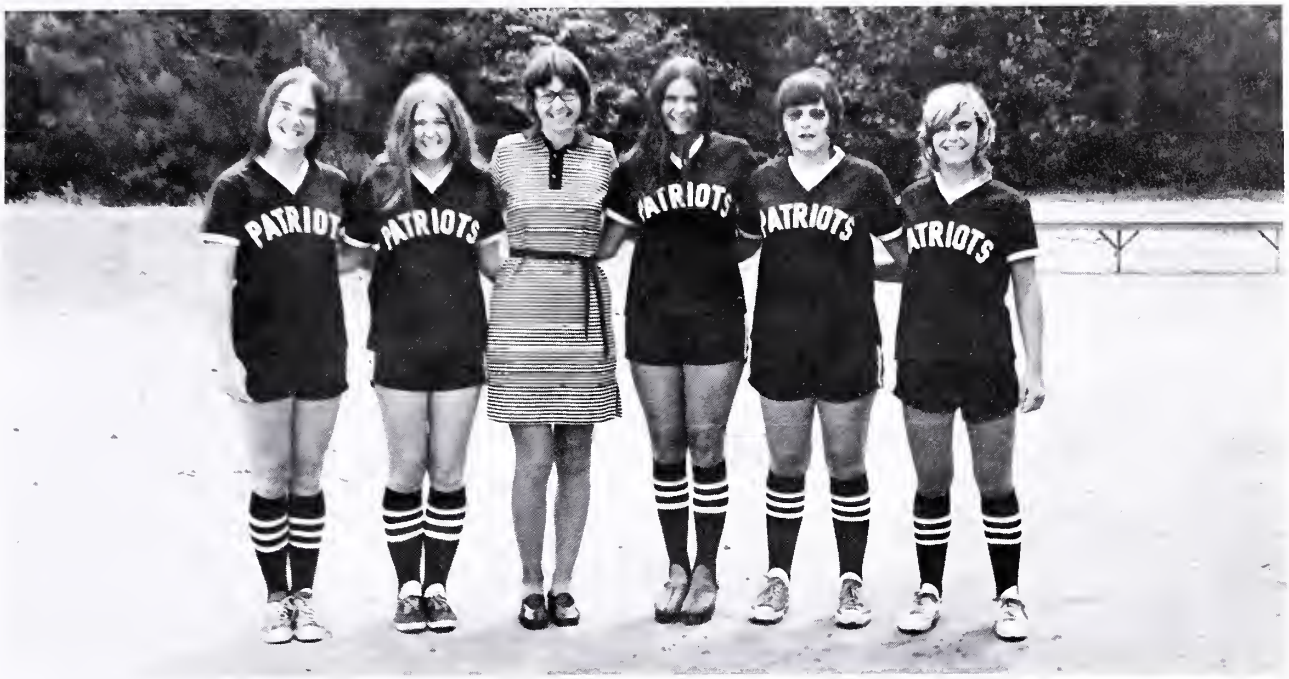
Baseball

The boys varsity baseball team suffered a losing season of 3 and 15. This was a building year for them, playing larger and more experienced teams outside our district.

The team raised money for uniforms, a pitching machine, and other needed supplies.

Softball



The 1973 girls' softball team had an excellent season of 7 and 3.

Outstanding players were Brenda Street, Emma Lee Mitchell and Renee Bailes.

Spring Tryouts

There was extensive participation in the spring tryouts for majorettes, letter girls and cheerleaders.

The Drama Department's spring production was "The Man Who Came to Dinner." The leading roles were portrayed by Wes Stone, Robin Southworth, Joanne Bailey, Steve Willis, Peter Shamberger, Wanda Johnson, Paul Stairs and Melinda Hope.

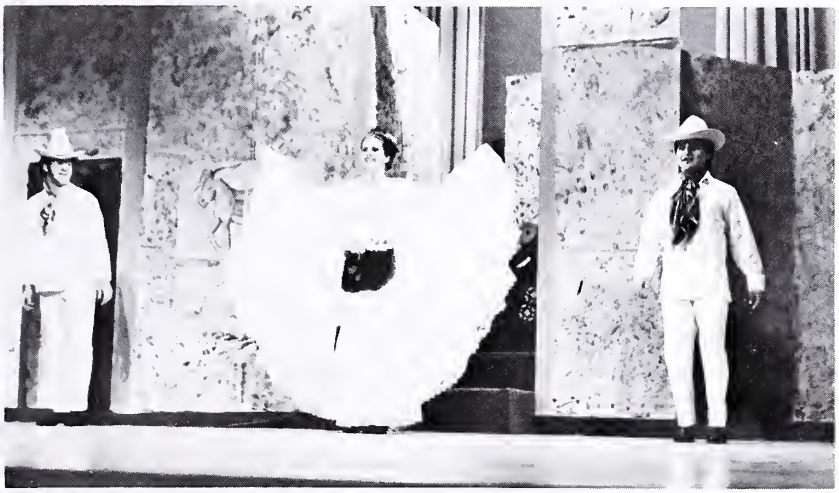
Joanne Bailey and Carolyn Adams received the outstanding drama students' award for 1973.

The drama productions were directed by Mr. Nidal Mahayni.

Trip to Mexico

This year 26 Spanish students chaperoned by Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Giles spent their Easter vacation in Mexico. The students were very impressed with the friendliness of the Mexicans. The Basilica of Guadeloupe made the deepest impression on the students.

Spanish Fiesta



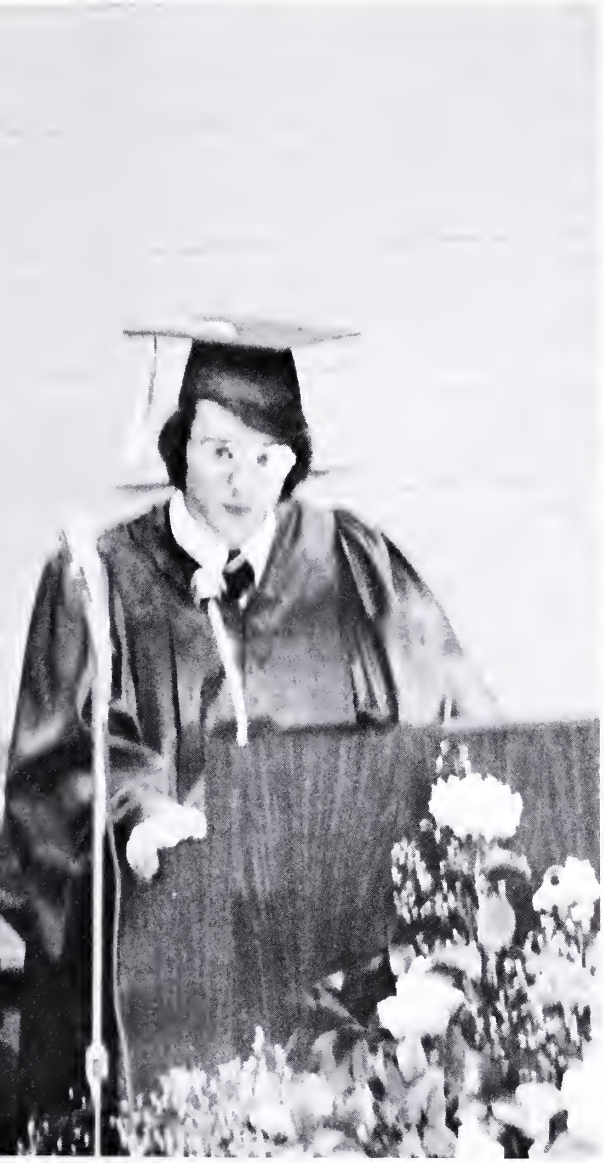
Prom '73

The theme for the 1973 prom was "If It Were Forever." The band was "Slap Water Jack."

There were about two hundred people who came and enjoyed the festivities.

Graduation 1973

Anne Midgette—Valedictorian



John McEwen—Salutatorian

During the fall of 1972, the senior class of 1973 chose seven juniors to serve as marshals during important senior activities. They were Renee Baile, Karen Cobb, Donna Bantan, Wilbur Mallory, Danny Bremner, Mike Roberts and Craig Attkisson. The most important events of the senior class were senior assembly, baccalaureate and commencement. The speakers for these events were Mr. Melvin Hall, Rev. R.B. Garnett, Anne Midgette and John McEwen. The commencement service was held in the gym of Randolph Macon College on June 7th.

In the final analysis of our twelve years of learning experience, our two educational paths—social and academic—merge to give us our complete character.

The students at Patrick Henry know that anytime they need assistance in planning their curriculum at P.H. or their future role after high school, that the guidance counselors are more than willing to give advice in the atmosphere of an advisor and a friend.

Without the diligent work of the secretaries, many of the administration's, faculty's, and students' projects would fail to be completed.

The secretaries' responsibilities are too numerous to be listed, yet their efforts and accomplishments are known and appreciated by all who are a part of Patrick Henry.

Great yr.
in P.H. Lets hope you have a more much Luck
Shawn.

Page,
when ~~the~~ we will read this annual a few years from now we will remember all the great times that everybody had.
Remember all the classes
we had together, especially remember "Bye Bye Birdie", all that work and fun!
Hope to see you screaming
in the stands this year!
Best of luck
Bonnie ~~Berry~~

Page
remember all the trouble we get into every weekends. Page you just have to stop getting all of us innocent kids drunk every in Hanover. Good luck next year
Love
Myra

Page,
You'll be good in whatever you do, so stay
just the way you are. Remember funny & sure Biology!
